The event library is a list of the objects and events that can be used to define workflows.

Input parameters for the active object.

When an object in the flow mapping frame (above) is selected, it shows up in this pane.

Output parameters for the active object.